In this period of unprecedented scientific accomplishment, miracles have become commonplace. Among the many modern marvels which are now a vital part of the American home, television is perhaps the most potent force of them all — for good or for evil. Because of its significant impact upon the contemporary scene, the editors have thought it appropriate in the 1951 Chieftain to use television as the theme.

Sirocco Review

Test Pattern

Oh, now the desert drums are beating low,
We are sad, for it is time to go.
But we will always be glad to think of all the fun we have had.
Wherever we may go, we shall remain loyal always to our noble name.
We're leaving Uni, and yet we know that you won't forget the—SIROCCOS.

SIROCCO SPRING OFFICERS: Nancy Irvin, Ed Gonzales, Barbara Beckman, Walt Vendley, Janet Kaplan.

SIROCCO FALL OFFICERS: Marlene Grossman, Joe Iwanaga, Jim Mills, Patty Ward, Vern Hollingsworth.

With a Senior prom which will long be remembered by all Warriors, the Siroccos, W'51, left us with warm memories. As a gift for us to remember, now that they are gone, the Siroccos presented us, and all the Uni-ites to come, a flag pole which is to be erected between the girls' and boys' fields.

B-12 officers were: Ed Gonzales, Walt Vendley, Nancy Irvin, Barbara Beckman, and Janet Kaplan. Senior A officers were Jim Mills, Marlene Grossman, Vern Hollinsworth, Patty Ward, and Janet Kaplan.

Ed Gonzales, Jeanne Ross, Donna Brooks, and Dick Oliva were our Sirocco Ephebians.

SIROCCO EPHEBIANS: Ed Gonzales, Jeanne Ross, Donna Brooks, Dick Oliva.

SIROCCO SEALBEARERS: Nancy Linsteader, Vicki Selditch, Nancy Irvin, Ed Gonzales, Pat Lynch, Marion Brubaker.

The Leadership Class, which meets period two, is the base of operations for Uni's student government. The Board of Commissioners, the actual student governing body of the school, meets in Leadership, as do the Girls' League and Boys' League officers and organization presidents.

The successful program carried out during the year included many new innovations; the campus clean-up campaign was revised and perfected, a new system for regulating noon hall traffic was initiated, and the annual Early California Day was a colorful climax to the school year. The greatest accomplishment of the year was the sale of Student Body Activity Cards during the fall term.

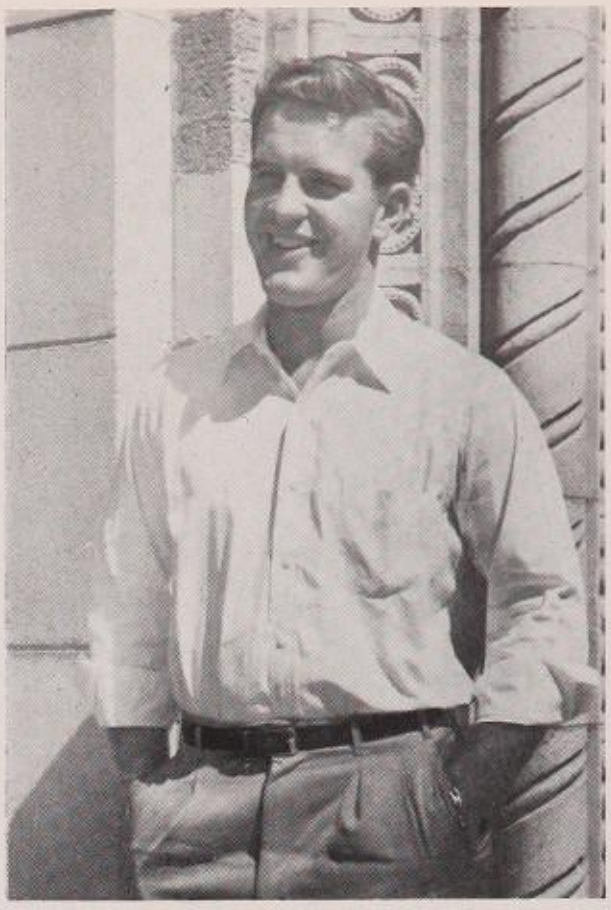
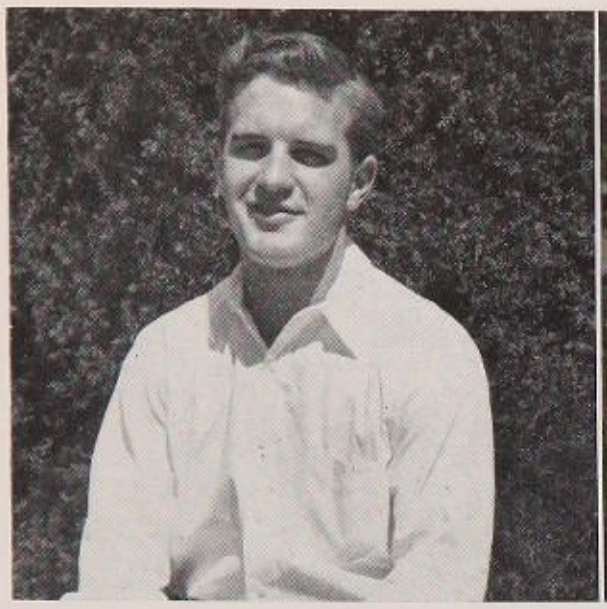
With her understanding and experience, Mrs. Lorraine Goodwin has capably guided the activities of the student leaders.

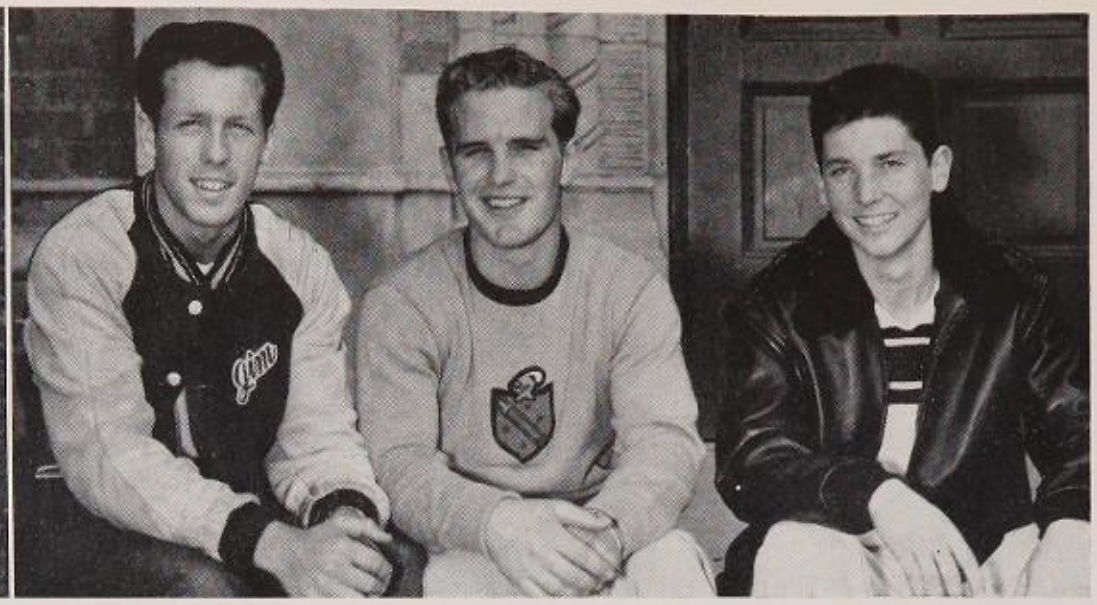


SPRING PRESIDENT: Carroll Hansen.

SPRING COMMISSIONERS: Row 2: L. Kenney, B.. Dann, B. Winer, J. Jensen, J. Dann, J. Sturgis, D. Boren. Row 1: G. Barnett, J. Boswell, S. McCracken, J. Vachon, M. Wickersham, J. Horning, E. Yamada; not shown: Carroll Hansen.



FALL PRESIDENT: Carroll Hansen.



FALL EXECUTIVE BOARD: J. Ryan, C. Hansen, B. Nunn.

Under the expert guidance of Mr. Carroll Lockridge, Boys' vice-principal, the Boys' League has worked as a well-oiled machine and has played an important part in student government affairs. Within the structure of the League two boards, Hearing and Service, function to improve school conduct and to provide activities in which boys may participate.

Carroll Hansen and Greg Barnett served as League presidents. The fine co-operation they received from the fall and spring vice-presidents, Jim Ryan and Gardner Miller, respectively; and the secretary-treasurers Bud Nunn, fall semester, and George Enoch, spring semester, contributed to the many fine assemblies and the efficient running of Boys' League activities.

The semi-annual fashion show, a talent show, and the Girls' League Nomination assemblies were included in the League activities for this year.

Leave it to the Girls

During Girls' Week this spring, Unihi girls were seen teaching in classes, visiting downtown business firms, and taking over the administrators' jobs.

The ten League Boards helped in promoting the welfare and happiness of many of our Uni girls. The Girls' League Cabinet was made up of the board chairmen and the Executive Board.

Decorating the suitable dress case in the hall, and suggesting the proper attire for all school-sponsored occasions are only two of the many varied activities carried on by the group.

The Girls' Board of Service, sponsored by Miss Mary McDonald, serves the school by working in the Attendance office, the counselor's office, and the bookroom. They also plan the girls' nominating assemblies each semester.

Can You Top This?

The smooth functioning of the Mawandas this past year was due to the diligent work of Barbara McDermott and Mary Stuart, fall and spring presidents. The honor club of Unihi has taken over the duties of ushering at assemblies, (with the Knights), and taking care of the snack lines. Mrs. Genevieve Harrison is their sponsor.

Under the able supervision of Mr. Lloyd Pack, fall sponsor, and Mr. Arthur Thomas, spring sponsor, the Knights have done an admirable job of ushering at assemblies and track meets. Fall president Neil Banks and spring Prexy John Carver had their hands full conducting the varied activities of the club.

Meledonians

Uni's honor society, the Meledonians, spend much of their time tutoring students who need help in their studies. This year the Commissioners of Scholarship who led the society were Jackie Jensen, fall, and John Horning, spring. Miss Estelle Mazziotta is their sponsor.

All of the Meledonians' time, however, is not taken up with tutoring. The Fall group visited the University of California at Los Angeles for a full day where the highlight was seeing the new cyclotron. Also observed with interest were Kerkoff and Royce Halls, the Library, and the new buildings.

A similar trip was enjoyed by the Spring Meledonians, but they journeyed to the University of Southern California. Here they took a tour around the campus. They also visited the Los Angeles County Museum in Exposition Park where they enjoyed looking at the various displays of the history of the cinema, Edison's early inventions, wild life, and the first automobiles.

AUDIO VISUAL: Under the direction of Mr. Joe Hesslein, students supply movies and transcriptions for the classrooms and auditorium through Audio Visual education. New film supplies arrive weekly and are distributed to teachers upon request.

GERMAN CLUB: Thursday after school the German club meets under the supervision of Miss Dorothy Johns. Emphasis is placed on study. Anyone interested may join without previous knowledge of German.

CREATIVE WRITING CLUB: Mr. Aram Tolegian's creative writing group hopes to publish a school anthology soon, containing the best work of all students in school. They now work on plays, poems, and scripts.

CHRISTIAN WARRIORS: This year, Uni's Bible study group has obtained movies for the student body on the atomic bomb and science. Membership in this club has rapidly grown this past semester. Miss Betty Stevens is sponsor.

DEBATE CLUB: This year the Debate Club was led by Ernest Kramer, president. Participating in speech contests, debates and panels, these aspiring orators have won many honors for Uni and themselves.

STAMP CLUB: The members of the newly-formed Stamp Club are interested in collecting stamps of different varieties and values. In a recent election Chuck Lomas and Harve Joffe were selected as president and vice-president. At their regular meetings the members discuss the real values of stamps and trade stamps to increase their own collections. Mr. John Arnold is sponsor of the club.

NATURALISTS' CLUB: Sponsored by Mr. Lyle Herbst and Mr. Richards Farnham, the Naturalists' Club consists of students interested in science and nature. The main activities are field trips and movies on science.

GIRLS' RIFLE TEAM: Sergeant Mike Gleason and the Girls' Rifle team meet every Wednesday after school in the Armory. The girls learn to shoot and to handle firearms.

Under the leadership of Mr. Carroll Lockridge, sponsor of Uni's Hi-Y council, Greg Barnett and Rodgers Dorr, who were fall and spring presidents, respectively; Uni's Hi-Y's completed a very successful year. They participated in many activities such as the co-sponsoring of the Silver Ball with the Tri-Y's. At the same time, individual clubs carried out separate projects, including raising money for the Y.M.C.A. fund and service for the school.

The major events in Uni's social life were the two Tri-Y-Hi-Y sponsored dances, the Silver Ball, the winter semi-formal affair, and the annual spring Carnival Dance. The dances were great successes due to the efforts of Joan Ruman, in the fall, Roberta Clark, in the spring, the Tri-Y Vice-Presidents' Councils, and the assistance of the Hi-Y Councils. The theme of the Carnival Dance, this year, was "Fantasy"; and all the Tri-Y's participated by decorating or building booths to carry out the "story-book" ideas.

The Band and Orchestra have represented Uni in off-campus as well as on-campus activities. Playing for both of the colossal color days presented by the Siroccos and the Celestials only increased the popularity of these groups. Combining their talents, the band and orchestra have presented both classical and popular selections in their appearances before the school. In participating in city-wide competition, the talents of our school's musical organizations were fully realized. Under the capable direction of Mr. Victor de Veritch, the band and orchestra have developed into an exceptionally able organization. One of the events of the last year that has made the students take notice of the ability of the two groups was the concert presented at an assembly during the spring term.

Cavalcade of Sports - Football

With a new school-year just beginning, Warriors were looking for a more promising football season than the preceding one. They were disappointed in the first game . . .

Fairfax 21—Uni 0

Sparked by Rick Janis and Jerry Oakanoff, the powerful passing machine of the Fairfax Colonials handed a 21-0 beating to a fighting, but outclassed, Warrior football team. Hampered by injuries to Carroll Hansen, Wayne "DeeDee" Bowers, and Dale Buell, the Warriors were stopped each time a drive took them to the midfield stripe. Although the body of the Colonial drives was passing, the running of Oakanoff played an important part in beating the Warriors.

Uni's hopes were raised the next week, though.

University 13—Hamilton 6

The first quarter saw both teams fighting hard to gain yardage. Excellent defense by the Yankee team kept Uni from scoring in the first period. In the second quarter, the Indians got inside the Hamilton 30 with consistent ground gains by Jose Uranga, Jerry Callies, and Wayne Bauer. Gordon Sausser then threw a perfect strike to John Peterson behind the foe's defense for six points. During the second half there were many pass interceptions and an exchange of tallies by the two competitors. Uni annexed its second score on a dynamic 38 yard run by Jose Uranga.

Our winning streak lasted for but one game, however, when we met the powerful Dorsey Dons. . .

Dorsey 20—Uni 0

Led by the skillful running of the entire Dorsey backfield, the Dons defeated a game Uni eleven. The Warriors received the opening kickoff, and on the first series of downs, Don Bob Tresville intercepted a Sausser pass and rambled 25 yards to score. Again Uni started up the field, only to be thwarted by the end of the first half. Going into the third quarter, Dorsey controlled play, as Singer, Holland, and Leanse lugged the pigskin to the Warrior 2, where Lucostic ripped into the end zone. The fighting Lucostic's hard running was the main factor in the Don's third six-pointer. Keeping Uni's spirit up were: Wayne Bauer, Dudley Hoover, Jerry Callies, Dick Oliva, and Gordon Sausser.

Bouncing back from bitter defeats seemed to be habit-forming as we tore into the Los Angeles Romans . . .

University 18—Los Angeles 0

Going into the game a seven-point underdog, the determined Warrior team scored its first touchdown on a perfect pass from Gordon Sausser to John Peterson before most of the fans had settled in their seats. The third quarter saw the Indians on their way to the Los Angeles goal line. The drive started on the University 40, and with brilliant running by Bernie Nebenzahl and Jose Uranga, climaxed on the one, where Sausser pushed it over. John Escobar was the stand-out of the fourth period with his outstanding running and scoring of the third and final tally. The accurate punting of Dick Oliva was also an important factor in the victory.

Two victories in a row would have been too much for the hot and cold Warrior team . . .

University 6—Hollywood 6

A bad break cost Uni's spirited eleven an easy win over a weak Hollywood aggregation. The Warrior ground attack was working smoothly, but two untimely penalties cost them the margin of victory. The touchdowns for both teams were scored in unusual fashion, both on pass interceptions. The Sheiks tallied on a 45 yard theft and run in the second quarter. Uni scored in the fourth period when Captain John Peterson, a standout on defense all afternoon, blocked a Hollywood pass, and Lee Blad, picking it out of the air, went all the way. Other outstanding performances were turned in by John Escobar, Jose Uranga, Bernie Nebenzahl, and Carrol Hansen.

"The Best Was Yet"

Venice 13—Uni 12

Playing their best game, the 1950 University football team was nipped by the league-champion Venice Gondoliers, 13-12.

The Indian attack was sparked by the brilliant running of John Escobar, Jose Uranga, Art Walton and Dick Oliva. Not to be overlooked was the equally tremendous defensive play by Carroll Hansen, Rodgers Dorr, Frank Chabre and the "unsung" heroes of the line.

One of the most spectacular plays of the year occured when Dick Oliva accounted for a 68 yard punt.

Our first touchdown was scored on an end-around play with John Escobar packing the ball. The conversion was blocked. Venice scored their two touchdowns by virtue of two long pass and run plays. All-city end, Leon Clarke, played an exceptional game, along with Tommy Grimes and Ronnie Skaggs.

Our other touchdown came in the fourth period when Escobar again scooted around his left end. The heart of every player and fan sank when the hard-charging Venice line blocked the conversion, leaving the score at 13-12.

Basketball

After a mediocre practice schedule, the 1950 University varsity basketball team tied for third place in the Western League with Los Angeles and captured the fourth spot in the All-City tournament.

In league play, the Warriors were defeated only by Fairfax and Hollywood; the Colonials topped Uni twice, by margins of 51-48 and 40-37, and the Redshirts did likewise, 56-34 and 53-23.

The highlights of the league season occurred in both L.A. games. In the first meeting the Warriors won 35-34, as Herb Isono sank a jump shot in the last 20 seconds of play. Isono, Cox, and St. Clair led the scoring with 12, 7, and 6, respectively. In the second game, Uni maintained a steady lead to win 42-37. Isono was all over the floor, as he scored 17 points.

With the close of the league season, the Warriors went into the All-City tournament with a minus rating. In the opening game with Marshall, Uni won by a 56-45 margin. John Carver and Herbie Isono each scored 11 points. Bob Cox and Jim St. Clair followed with 10. Next on the Warrior list was Narbonne, Eastern Marine league champs. Uni pulled a surprise, winning 39-37, as Cox scored 16 points, swishing in hook-shots from all sides.

In the semi-finals, Uni bowed to Jefferson's city champs, but not without a hard-fought battle. Behind 30-15 at halftime, the Warriors staged an incredible rally, pulling up to within 9 points of the Democrats. At this point, a missed layup foiled Uni, and Jefferson went on to win 58-42. Leading the Warriors were Herb Isono with 13, Denny Boren with 10, and John Carver with 9.

In the consolation finals, a disappointed Uni five lost to a red-hot North Hollywood team.

Outstanding for University throughout the season was Captain Herb Isono. His all-round play made him indispensable, and caused him to be selected for first-string All-Western, and second string All-City honors. Guard John Carver was named to the second-string All-Western for his sparkling defensive play.

Sports Review - Baseball

After defeating Fairfax 5-4 and Hamilton 10-5, the 1951 varsity baseball team pulled the surprise of the season by tying city champion Dorsey, 3-3, on Dick Sassara's seventh inning homer, with two away. Going into the Los Angeles game, the Warriors' hopes were high, but L.A. won by a 5-4 margin. For the remainder of the season, Uni went into a slump, defeating only Westchester twice and Hollywood once. Highlight of the second round was the Fairfax contest. Behind 5-0 in the fourth inning, the Warriors staged an uphill rally to win 7-5 on last inning RBI's by Len Swartz and Dick Sassara.

Sassara led the club in batting with a .357 average, and was selected for an outfield berth on the All-Western first team. Catcher Len Swartz hit .326.

Heading the pitching staff for the third year was Herb Isono, who was the only hurler able to tame Dorsey after 29 wins in a row. Lonnie McKellar 2-0, Bob Cox 1-2, and Bud Darling 1-1, made up the rest of the pitching crew.

The infield was manned by Phil Murray, Johnny Lugo, Rudy Heredia, and Jerry Legge; and the outfield consisted of Dick Sassara, Jack Callahan, Roger de Laix, and Leo Larsen. Utility men were Art Kishi and Bill Maxey.

Coach Jim Pursell's 1951 varsity track team failed to live up to expectations, but several outstanding individual marks were posted during the course of the year.

The Warriors opened the league season with a solid but unimpressive victory over Fairfax by a 60-44 margin. The best marks were made in the pole vault, 11' 6" by Terry Tinley, and the high jump, 5' 11" by Phil Murray. Rich Macintosh put the shot 45' 11" to take another first place, and Bill Tranter took the high hurdles.

Next on Uni's list was Hamilton, and the Warriors responded with an overwhelming 79-25 win. Rodgers Dorr was a double victor, winning the high hurdles in 16 flat, and the lows in 20.9. Bill Rolland also took both his races, the 100 in 10.3 and the 220 in 22.8. Other winners for the Braves were: Dan McClanahan in the shot, Warren Holthaus in the 440, John Hanna in the 880, Terry Tinley in the pole vault, and Jose Uranga in the broad jump. Uni's relay team turned in a 3:13.1 victory to climax the meet.

In the remaining league meets the Warriors failed to win except against a weak Westchester aggregation. Uni lost to Dorsey 57½-46½, Los Angeles 74½-29½, Hollywood 68-36, and Venice 56½-47½.

Winning against Dorsey were: Dorr, 21.2 in the low hurdles, Rolland, 23.2 in the 220, and Terry Tinley and Bob Allen, both clearing 11' in the pole vault. Outstanding marks posted against Los Angeles were: 49' 5" in the shot by Dan McClanahan 2:06.6 in the 880 by John Hanna, 20.6 in the low hurdles by Dorr, and 4:51.5 in the mile by Jack Detamore. Pacing the Warriors against Venice were: Phil Murray with 21' 7" in the broad jump, Macintosh with 48' 2 1/2" in the shot put; and the highlight of the meet was when Bill Rolland edged out Gondolier Leon Clarke in a 22.5 220.

Entered for Uni in the Western League meet were Terry Tinley, Paul Zierer, Bill Rolland, Bob Hunt, Jack Detamore, John Hanna, Rodgers Dorr. Phil Murray, Rich Macintosh, and Dan McClanahan. The only Warriors to place were: Hunt, fifth in the mile, Dorr, fifth in the high hurdles, and Hanna, fifth in the 880. Uni's relay team also took fifth place.

Adding depth to this year's team were: Joe Navarro, Roy Vegotsky, Rickey Maus, Dudley Hoover, Morley Moran, Don Hicks, Reggie Foster, Dee Golles, Buckie Holland, Dick Sassara, and Tony Hilder.

On the Court - Tennis

Ending an uneventful season, mainstay Bill Roberti copped the All-City Tennis title, and second and third men Mike Perram and Phil Mauldin teamed up to take the doubles crown.

Favored to win the Western League, the Warriors lost to a strong Los Angeles team 4-3, and bowed to Hollywood the following week by the same score.

Alternating for the fourth and fifth spots were Bruce Barker, Phil Thompson, and Wilson Butte. The doubles were taken care of by Jeff Thorner, Mike Perrott, Bob Mishell, John Anning, and Lee Ragens.

Bee Football

As far as the Indian Bee Football team was concerned, 1950 was an uneventful year. The team, weak in reserves, fell to all opponents save Fairfax. Star players throughout the season included Captain Max Madrid, Jim Mora, John Mitsuchi, Glen Harman, Bob Carillo, Ben Nakamura, Joe Iwanaga, and Dave McGrath.

Jim Mora led the team to its lone victory, the season opener. After a scoreless first half, the pint-sized Colonials scored 7 points in the third period. Then Mora scooted in an end-around play for six points, and the Papooses evened the count as John Mitsuchi passed to Bob Carillo for the extra point. With the score knotted and only seven minutes to go, Mora again ran the same end play for another T. D. Max Madrid ran the ball over for the extra point, and the game ended with an Indian victory, 14-7.

Bee Basketball

The 1950 University Bee Basketball team ended the year in fourth place, showing up both hot and cold as the season progressed. As the league opened, Uni suffered the loss of Tip Foreman, key guard in the Braves' attack. Falling into a slump in the next few games, the Warriors didn't revive until an unknown forward named Del Quackenbush broke into the lineup. His accurate foul shooting and high scoring made up for the previous loss.

Biggest highlight of the year came in the second Hollywood game. Uni went on a scoring spree to ring up 70 points, a new high for any Uni Bee team.

Rudy Heredia, who sank 27 points against Notre Dame for a new record, was moved up to varsity at the end of the season because of his outstanding play.

Al Schweitzer, Phil Mauldin, Dan Porter, Bill Jennings, Mike Perrott, Frank Ige, and Al Lenz also played good ball.

Jayvee Baseball

The 1951 Jayvee baseball team failed to find the range until the first game of the second round, when they defeated Fairfax 8-6. The next contest again found the Uni horsehiders on top, as they downed Hamilton 12-5. The Braves were defeated in all the other league games.

Top prospects for next year's varsity include: catcher, Max Madrid; outfielder, Al Lenz; second baseman, Dan Sassa; outfielder, Ron Woodmansee; shortstop, Al Schweitzer; and pitcher, Lee Blodgett.

Bee Track

The 1951 track team salted away a 5-2 record in dual meets, losing only to Los Angeles and Dorsey, placing third in the league finals. Top performers included: sprinter, Andy Stillie and pole vaulter, Pete Nelson, who both set new school records in the events, and 1320 men, Al Collins and Dale Brooks, who took 1-2 in the Western Finals. Placing in the city finals were: Stillie, sixth in the 220, Nelson, sixth in the pole vault, Brooks, sixth in the 1320, and high jumper, Bob Fendler, tie for fifth. Fendler had a high mark of 5' 10" against Hollywood. Filling out the team were: Chan Bush, Don Bowers, Bob Wise, Charles Huante, Henry Lewis, Bob Sambrano, Jesus Marcias, Fritz Kiessig, Ray Durgin, Mits Idieshi, and Mike Simmons.

Leading the Cees to a 6-1 record was Yoshio Setoguchi, who placed third in the City Finals of the 180, after winning the league in 19 flat.

CREATIVE DANCE CLASS: The beginning and advanced Creative Dance classes went to Hollywood High in the spring for the second dance symposium. The dances were taken from cities around the world. Among the cities represented were: Paris, Tunis, New York, Cairo and Hollywood. In the fall semester both classes presented a noon assembly for the school, took a major part in the operetta "The Firefly," under Mrs. Blanchard's able direction, performed a rousing number for Early California Day, and gave a program of versatile dances in the Girls' Gym Open House night.

GIRLS' DRILL TEAM: Although our drill team is fairly new, it has added spirit and prestige to Uni. Representing us royally at the football games and Girls' Field Day, by performing many skillful and colorful drills, the group has done more than its share in "Keeping Uni High" in the limelight.

The fall G.A.A. was very active, and brought home many wins in the playdays to "Keep Uni High." The theme of this semester's playday was "Circus." It was held on our campus, with the G.A.A.'s of Narbonne, Bell, and San Fernando High's participating. The second playday was held at Jefferson High, and the theme was "Dogpatch." G.A.A.'s participating in this were from Freemont and Marshall High Schools. The G.A.A. put on an all-class Christmas party, at which a few in the organization entertained. The last big event of the semester was a banquet with a winter motif.

Events galore filled the days of the girls in the Spring G.A.A. Beginning the activities was the playday with Dorsey High as the host. The theme was "Hillbilly." Next in line was the new girls' party. For the fashion-minded girls (and who isn't) the G.A.A. put on a fashion show for the G.A.A. and all senior girls. Climaxing an eventful season was the banquet on May 31.

Wheels in the G.A.A. were President, Karen Neilson, who was in charge of the Early California Day entertainment, and Lettergirl President, Barbara McDermott, who managed the E.C.D. relays.
